New Georgia Booster Seat Law in effect July 1
A new Georgia booster seat law goes into effect Friday, July 1st. The new law signed by Gov. Nathan Deal requires that all children under age 8 must be properly secured in an approved car seat or booster seat while riding in passenger automobiles, vans, and pickup trucks. The law also requires children under eight to ride in... [\[Read more\]](#)

Study confirms: Whining is the worst sound on the world
By Jennifer Langston June 17, 2011 If you think the worst sound in the world is when one of your kids starts whining, then you're actually scientifically correct. It turns out that whining is, indeed, the worst sound in the world to human ears. We can't get anything done when someone is whining. A new study in the Journal of Social, Evolutionary... Change made to airport screenings for young kids
By EILEEN SULLIVAN The Associated Press Wednesday, June 22, 2011 WASHINGTON — The government has made a change in its policy for patting down young children at airport checkpoints, and more are promised. Airport security workers will now be told to make repeated attempts to screen young children without resorting to invasive pat-downs, the head of... [\[Read more\]](#)
